

up to the indignation of all good law-abiding citizens, a base attempt to bring the Judiciary of the country under the van of party political divisions, and endeavor to make party politics influence the action of our high courts. This is what we call loco-focism, that cannot be mistaken.

COMMERCIAL.

YAZOO CITY MARKET, Oct. 18.
REMARKS.—Since our last issue, improvement has evinced itself in the trade of our town, and the receipts of cotton are greater than the week preceding, and the demand for staple goods is more lively, yet we cannot say that the fall trade has opened with its usual vigor; not do we expect it will, until the season is somewhat advanced, and our intercourse with New Orleans, once more resumed. The Yazoo, continues navigable for the smallest class of steamers, and there is no reason to apprehend that it will fall any lower than it is at this date.

Cotton.—This article is arriving quite freely, stock on hand computed at 2000 bales, mostly for shipment—some sales are daily effected at from 10 to 11 cents, as in quality.

Provisions.—The supply is very good, and sufficient for the demand, and what will particularly interest the planting community, is offered at rates fully as low, and for some articles lower, than is demanded in the Vicksburg market.

Bagging & Ropes.—We do not believe the market fully supplied with these articles, however, the extent of the Cotton crop will determine that fact; rates rule for Bagging 31 cents and Ropes 12 1/2 cents.

EXCHANGES.—The only change in this line that we have to note—is the falling into disrepute, from some cause unknown to us, of the Post Note of the Miss. Rail Road Co., at Natchez, which hitherto have ranked with other notes of the same character. Our banks are not checking on the north, nor at present on New Orleans, good bills however can be obtained on the latter point.
